

Think about times when you have had to be patient.

How does it make you feel?

Then pray for each other. James 5:16

[illegible]

A black and white line drawing of several wheat stalks. Each stalk has a long, slender blade and a head of grain at the top. The heads are composed of multiple spikelets, each with several grains. The stalks are shown in a cluster, with some in the foreground and others slightly behind.

How can we work with God?
We can  after  another,
 give  another and   another.
